

Idioms for debate

Make your statements sound more natural!

ESL
Debates
.com

a bone of contention:	The choice of place for holiday turned out to be a real bone of contention in their family this year.
as a matter of fact:	As a matter of fact, I love him very much.
at all costs:	We must win at all costs.
be in two minds about smth:	Well, I don't know. I am still in two minds about buying this car.
be under no illusions:	Am under no illusions about them wanting to rip us off.
by all means:	By all means we will try to answer any questions, so feel free to ask.
on your own initiative:	She realized that she had never done anything on her own initiative without the motivation of someone else.
without fail:	The postman always comes at 10 o'clock without fail.